

Good Bye! Now the Misses Must Think of School

Cloudcroft and kindred pleasures for the Misses are almost at an end. The wardrobe for school wear is now an important item. We call particular attention to our unequalled selections in Misses' sizes.

Especially for those who will "go away" to college this fall we offer a service that cannot be found elsewhere, as items were purchased purposely to supply this needed wearing apparel. In addition to suits, coats, skirts, petticoats and wraps, all the little necessary articles are to be found here in wide selection.

Our Style Display Is Different--Preeminent

Since Monday we have received hundreds of new fall garments. The present style display is by far the most elaborate to be seen in El Paso. There is nothing new or correct that cannot now be found here in

Tailored Suits Fall Skirts
Silk Waists Tailored Waists
Petticoats Lingerie
Scarfs Veils
Bags Belts
Neckwear Hose

The Correct Fall Corsets

The new models in Redfern, Modont, Lily of France, Royal Worcester and Bon Ton Corsets are now displayed. In service and variety of corsets carried our section is not approached in El Paso.

CARL MAKE DIES AT SAN PEDRO

Champion Driller of United States Passes Away in Mexican Mining Camp.

Carl Make, a well known miner and champion driller of the United States, who with Chamberlain won the prizes in the drilling contests in El Paso in 1904, died at the Sierra Madre mine in the Escondido mountains, a few miles south of San Pedro camp, Chihuahua, Mex., Saturday, Aug. 24. His body was taken to San Pedro by Capt. Patrick Durack and buried.

A large number of his old mining friends were at the funeral. Mr. Make was 45 years of age, and a native of Sweden.

He leaves a wife and son and two daughters.

Close Call.
Four families of homesteaders who were reported burned to death on La Tour creek, Kootenai county, Idaho, escaped by wading 15 miles along the bed of the creek with fire burning down to the water's edge, forcing the refugees frequently to submerge themselves when the flames almost reached their faces. The families were those of Walter Osborne, E. A. Smith, E. O. Anderson and J. O. Anderson. The aged father of the Andersons borne on a stretcher by the other men who arrived at St. Joe with their charred clothing ready to fall from their bodies.

Organizing Relief.
Missoula, Mont., Aug. 24.—District forester, W. B. Greeley, who for the last 10 days has been supervising the fire fighting on the Flat Head national forest, is here organizing an expedition to take relief to the burned districts. He said when he left Kalispell yesterday there was no danger to the towns and settlements in that district. Three companies of soldiers were working on the Flat Head and one on the Blackfoot reserves. Repeated requests are being made by Greeley for all available soldiers in the northwest.

Troops Assisting.
Washington, Aug. 24.—The war department has telegraphed the commanding officer of the troops at Spokane, Wash., to render all assistance to the officials in combating the flames on the Colville Indian reservation. The Indian bureau has in turn sent a message to superintendent Webster to hold a conference with the army officer to determine the necessary steps to be taken.

Forest Service Officials.
Forest service officials are delaying a reply to acting governor Bowerman's message, offering the aid of the state militia to determine whether the war department will order troops from other departments to aid in subduing flames.

California Fires.
Redding, Cal., Aug. 24.—A forest fire near Minerville, Trinity county, has a front five and a half miles and has burned its way into the belt of magnificent timber.

Montana Troops Ordered Out.
Butte, Mont., Aug. 24.—Governor Norris has ordered out state troops to fight forest fires.

Idaho, Aug. 24.—J. L. Baylor, of Spokane, Wash., who arrived at Wallace today, says Seltice, Mont., a town of 1000, was destroyed by fire yesterday without the loss of a single life. He says he saw the fire.
